

How to Print

Material contains two pages for each lesson. It should be printed on the front and back to make an easy flow. After printing it should be folded along the center line like a book fold.

